

“... the scope and elegance are monumental.”

“A labor of love.”

Ted's Travelling Circus

... now in print!

A close-up account of the pioneer B-24 outfit—the 93rd Bombardment Group—at war 1942-45. 396 missions—the most of any of the 63 USAAF heavy bomber groups on that side of the world; the most traveled, most colorful and, arguably, most efficient fighting machine of World War II.

Mostly in the words of those who fought start-to-finish in the greatest human conflict of all time.

42 maps, charts & sketches

592 pages
8.5"x11" archival-quality paper; weighs 4 lbs.

Appendices Include:

- * Roll of Honor (670), KIA and MIA declared KIA
- * Burial locations in U.S. overseas military cemeteries
- * Roster of some 6,000 who served in the 93rd

506 photos
some sparkle, others unavoidably faded

Testimonials

"Cal Stewart has captured the spirit and "gung ho" courage and talent of exceptional young men. Without question one of the most detailed and interesting unit histories ... evoking many vivid and poignant memories."

Ramsay D. Potts
Major General
USAF (ret.)

"A labor of love. Surely a history matchless beyond anything about any other WWII group. The scope and elegance are monumental."

The Rev. Marshall V. Minister
